Foreword...

This year's KEY marks the tenth anniversary of Roanoke Catholic High School. These years have been ten eventful ones as evidenced by the growth of the school to the present student body of nearly 300 pupils. The idea of consolidating the two small Catholic high schools in Roanoke—Our Lady of Nazareth and Saint Andrew's—was conceived by our late bishop, Most Reverend Peter L. Ireton. In May, 1950, our newly appointed pastor, Father John S. Igoe, was given the tremendous task of combining the two schools. He, assisted by Sister Catherine Alma, principal of Saint Andrew's, was the main force in bringing about the consolidation.

Under the faithful guidance of the clergy of all the parishes in Roanoke and its environs and under the dedicated teaching of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, Roanoke Catholic High School has grown and prospered. This year another grade was added to the four years of high school. The eighth graders are ranked now as part of the high school by the direction of the Commonwealth and Diocesan Boards of Education.

As the tenth graduating class of Roanoke Catholic High we are proud of the improvements that have been made on "Catholic Hill" and the growth and the growing importance of our Alma Mater. "Ad multos annos" and "Ad excelsiora!"—on and on to the greater things God means for R. C. H.

Father Igoe congratulates Co-Editor Jane Tankersley on her National Merit score while Sister Cornelius watches.

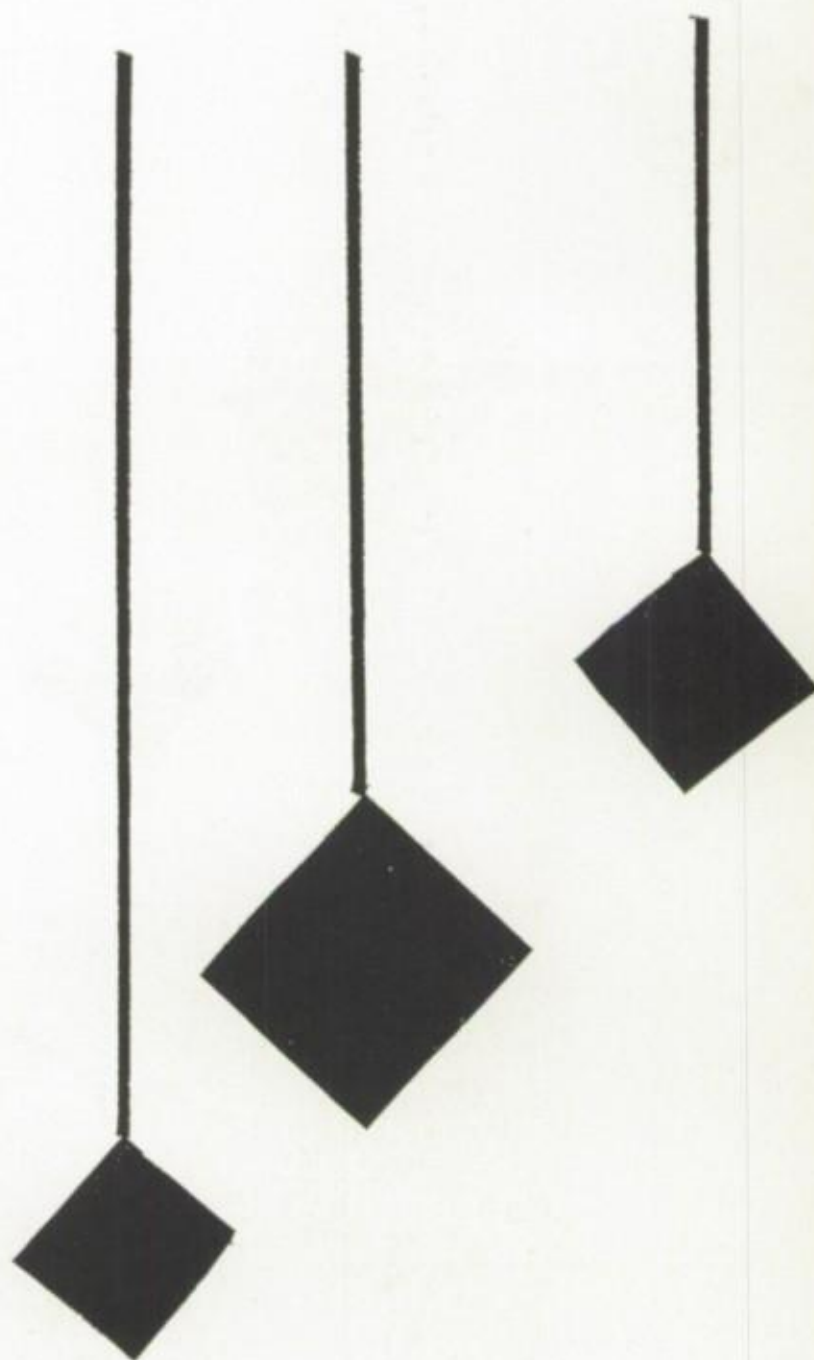

Father Igoe takes time out for batting practice with his well-loved grade school children.

Each Ave in the decades of Our Lady's Rosary adds to our hymn of loving praise for her. Likewise, each annum in the decade of Father Igoe's years at R. C. H. adds to the devoted service he has given on "Catholic Hill." This decade of pastoral achievement by the Very Reverend John S. Igoe, V. F., was marked on February 16 of this year. When Father first came to the hill, it was in "wretched condition." To add to his cares orders came in May for school consolidation. Father Igoe made the necessary preparation so that Roanoke Catholic High opened classes on schedule the following September. Since that time, the Church has been redecorated, the rectory remodeled, and many improvements made at St. Andrew's Convent and Grade School.

A native of Alexandria, Virginia, Father Igoe was graduated from St. Mary's Academy and Alexandria High School. Later, he entered Belmont Abbey College in North Carolina, graduating in 1918. On June 13, 1924, Father Igoe was ordained for the Diocese of Richmond. Years of zealous labor as pastor in rural and urban parishes preceded his appointment to St. Andrew's in late January of the Holy Year of 1950.

"In all my years of Priesthood, I have never seen an educational set-up to equal the one here on St. Andrew's Hill." These words are spoken frequently by Father Igoe in glowing praise of the learning situation at R. C. H. To Father Igoe, our revered Dean, Pastor, and Friend, we, the tenth graduating class of Roanoke Catholic High, affectionately dedicate this anniversary issue of THE KEY. We wish him continued blessings and extend our sincere gratitude.

MOTHER BERTRAND, S.C.N.

Mother General of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth when the St. Andrew's and Our Lady of Nazareth High Schools were coalesced into Roanoke Catholic High School. We offer our prayerful good wishes to Mother Bertrand on the conclusion of her twelve years as Mother General from 1948-1960.

We reap the benefits of the Holy Spirit through the love and kindness of the Faculty 1959-1960

As preparation for graduation we have spent four years cared for by our faculty, who, under the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, have cultivated His infused virtues.

We know that we will never in the years to come receive the companionship we have had here. How very contented and happy our priests and S.C.N.'s have made us by individual and undivided interest in what we were doing! In thanking them, we acknowledge what we have received not only from books but from their fine example, directive guidance, and the feeling of democracy manifested in our school activities.

In our social life they have witnessed the looks of joy on our faces at many school affairs. They have shown us how to have "real fun" because it's been "right fun"! We would like to think that every class that has graduated in the ten years of Roanoke Catholic's history has shown gratitude and love to those who truly deserve it for the work they have done in these, the best years of our lives.

Senior Daze

The best days of one's life are one's high school days. Oh, how well the Class of '60 will come to realize this in future years! We will look back and remember our Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior days and the good times we had, the parties and dances we went to and the crazy things we did. But crazy as we were, we could be serious when the occasion demanded as at retreats, especially the Senior one and the Day of Recollection.

So many events filled our Senior Year! The Get-Acquainted Party for the Frosh and Sub-Frosh, Homecoming where our head cheerleader, Helena Gillespie, reigned as queen. The newly-formed Pep Club made the Homecoming Parade the best ever. Lovely Veronica Hunter was our city representative on the Snow Queen Float in the Christmas Parade and also reigned over our Snowflake Splendor.

All seven cheerleaders were Seniors this year and, though we lost at times, these peppy cheerleaders never gave up. We like to think they were the best R. C. H. ever had. The Tournament! We came home with the Boys Class B Championship. Then came the Athletic Banquet, the Class Trip to Washington, the Junior-Senior Prom with Andrea Stevens as Prom Queen. Thank you, Juniors, for a memory we will long treasure. The last few days were crammed with so much. We knew everything was a "last." With Graduation so close even small things were most precious to us.

Yes, we could go on forever! But all good things must come to an end.

So, we, the Senior Class of 1960, bid farewell to Roanoke Catholic High School. Will the halls of R. C. H. seem empty without us? We hope so, for a little while at least. These are the memories we will cherish, memories filled with love for our Alma Mater, Roanoke Catholic High.

Guiding Lights

PREXY JACK WINSTON, Veep Drucilla Stevens, Secretary Donna Eunice and Treasurer James O'Connor capably led the Senior Class through lights and shadows of their final year.

Our song has ended; will the melody linger on? As a class we are no more. We are gone forever from the hill. Gone but not forgotten—we hope.

As you do the things that are part of high school life, the "books and lessons, games and parties," we ask that you think occasionally of those who have gone before you. Walking through the halls, feel our spirit lingering there. If you listen carefully, you'll still be able to hear us in the classrooms, the lab, the library, and the gym, cheering at pep rallies and games—(for four years the class of '60 cheered, hoped, and prayed our team to ultimate victory)—dancing at hops, waltzing at proms. Maybe we'll best be remembered as the class who knew how to have a good time. Even as you decorate for dances, you may be able to find old pieces of crepe paper, mute reminders of the blood, sweat and tears that went into decorating for the social activities of the last few years.

We were the tenth class to graduate from RCH and, as such, we had a unique kind of class spirit. We were a close-knit class, one that did things together. We regret we did not do more. A few souvenirs and this book are the only tangible milestones to mark our passing, but we sincerely hope that a monument to our memory has been erected in the hearts of the people who mean so much to us . . . the faculty and the students of our Alma Mater.

Yes, the song has ended; will the melody linger on?

DORA ANN AZAR

March 3

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Dora is our chief silent smiler. Nothing ever bothers our happy-go-lucky "grinner" who has her sights fixed on the vocation of Christian marriage. All the happiness in the world to a girl who truly deserves it. "Dodo" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . "Deep Purple" . . . Having holidays . . . Desires to be Mrs.!!! . . . Probably will be genial housewife.

The 1960 Senior Class

GABRIELLA ALICIA BEATTIE

October 27

SAINT ANDREW'S

The calm in every senior storm. Her beautiful brown eyes are always twinkling with merry laughter—except when someone steps on her foot; then Gabby isn't so calm! A barrel of fun to be around, you can always count on her to give her help willingly whenever needed. May she have all the happiness in life she so richly deserves.

"Gabby" . . . "I don't know" . . . "Handy Man" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Eating Pizza and loafing . . . Wants to be . . . Mrs. William D. Boitnott, Jr. . . . Probably will be Mrs. William D. Boitnott, Jr.

ROSEMARY ELIZABETH BRINKLEY

SAINT ANDREW'S

This little coquette is ever the perfect lady. Her soft-spoken, demure manner, willingness to cooperate, and her charm have endeared "Rosie" to all who know her. Her stamp bill for letters to the Navy must be quite imposing. May all her dreams come true!

"Liz" . . . "Oh, good grief!" . . . "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . writing letters . . . Desires to be Mrs. R. W. Hambrick . . . Probably will be Mrs. R. W. Hambrick.

Roanoke Catholic High School

HELEN TERESA CALLAHAN

September 3

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Though Helen has her giddy and carefree side, when she puts her mind to it, she can be level-headed and practical, a girl who always knows what she wants. We hope that in the future all of her dreams will come true to the very end and that happiness will be hers always.

Helen . . . "Get out of here!" . . . "Twelfth or Never" . . . "O Sacrament Most Holy" . . . Talking on the phone . . . Desires to be wife and mother of six children . . . Probably will be arrested on her honeymoon.

PATRICIA WANDA CHENAULT

February 21

SAINT ANDREW'S

Our talented and capable Pat worked long and hard to make the music for every senior project a huge success. She can be depended on for any occasion. Patricia, we wish you the best of luck and the best from life. "F.A." . . . "For crying out loud!" . . . "Don't ask me Why" . . . "Hail, Queen of Heaven" . . . Desires to be Mrs. Melvin W. Scott . . . Probably will be a tremendous hit at Carnegie Hall.

The Tenth Senior Class

MICHAEL JOHN CRADDOCK

February 2

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

One of our best dancers can really be described as a "great guy". His charming manner and his cooperative ways have endeared him to students and faculty alike. Try to stay out of trouble, Mike, and the best of luck to all that you undertake in life.

"Mike" . . . "But Sister, you don't seem to understand" . . . "My Prayer" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Taking it easy . . . Desires to be matured . . . Probably will be salesman for Britannica Encyclopedia.

PAULITA MARIE DILLON

July 7

SAINT ANDREW'S

Our alternate cheerleader, voted "most dramatic" and "most talented" is always willing to work hard and long for any cause. Who can ever forget Paulita's sweet personality, her genuine talent for friendliness, or her wonderful parties?

"Red" . . . "Might as well; can't dance" . . . "In the Still of the Night" . . . "Birthday of a King" . . . Looking at sports cars . . . Desires to be owner of a sports car . . . Probably will be owner of the owner of a sports car.

will always be true

KAREN ANN DONCKERS

October 11

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

The hardworking newspaper woman of the class is Karen. Her active participation in school affairs and contagious enthusiasm helped to carry many a senior plan. May she have all the luck in the newspaper field or in any other career she may choose.

Karen . . . "Gee!" . . . "Twilight Time" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Waiting for Mack to come home . . . Desires to be nurse . . . Probably will be owner of a trained flea circus.

DONNA MARIE EUNICE

SAINT ANDREW'S

Donna was our class Secretary, delegate to Girls' State, president of the Pep Club, and senior attendant to the Homecoming Queen. She is always full of fun and vitality. Any school function would not be complete without Donna, for she was truly the "most school spirited" and the "peppiest" girl in the Senior class. Her love for R.C.H. will always remain with her. Donna is easy to know but hard to forget.

Sweets . . . "Really" . . . "Cathy's Clown" . . . "O Holy Night" . . . Desires to be Secretary . . . Probably will be permanent fixture at R.C.H. games.

to the high ideals

MARILYN ANN FINN

August 22

SAINT ANDREW'S

Marilyn, quiet and friendly, was voted our best business student as well as the most dependable in the class. Her genuinely likable personality won her many friends and the American Legion Award. A superb secretary for you know who!

Marilyn . . . "You're kidding!" . . . "Four Walls" . . . "Birthday of a King" . . . Desires to be a Medical Secretary . . . Probably will be married to the doctor.

MARIE DENISE FLORENT

August 3

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

As President of the Student Mission Crusade and manager of the girls' basketball team, Denny is fun loving, thoughtful, candid and sincere. Denise will always be remembered by her classmates as a magnificent mixer. We are sure that she will go far in life.

"Denny" . . . "Gush!" . . . "When it's Tooth-picking Time in False Teeth Valley" . . . "Cor Jesu" . . . Causing Trouble . . . Desires to be medical technologist . . . Probably will be Lady Restaurateur.

fostered at R.C.H.

SANDRA LEIGH GEORGE

September 3

SAINT ANDREW'S

Petite Sandra, voted the "cutest" in our class, is one of our vivacious cheerleaders as well as a vivacious writer to a certain Air Force guy. Chic and poised, we are sure she will go far in Civil Service as well as in any other field.

"Tubby" . . . "Peaches and Cream" . . . "Greensleeves" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Reading about the U.S.A.F. . . Desires to be airline stewardess . . . Probably will be model for Tanorama Ads.

HELENA JOSEPHINE GILLESPIE

August 16

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Tall in spirit and ambition, if not in stature, our Homecoming Queen Lena was voted "Most Popular" and "Most School Spirited." Her great love for R.C.H. and all its students and her efforts to bring credit to the school made us all proud of our head cheerleader. We'll never forget SHARPY or her sparkling personality.

"Lena" . . . "Well, I Swanee!" . . . "You'll Never Walk Alone" . . . "When Blossoms Flowered Amid the Snows" . . . Cheerleading . . . Desires to be . . . Secretary . . . Probably will be athletic director of R. C. H.

and destined to produce

JOSEPH CARL GIVENS

December 20

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

With Monk, the lovable mad scientist around, there is never a dull moment. He is always willing to lend a helping hand. His classmates will never forget the great Ski King's party at Claytor Lake. Lots of luck to a "little guy" with "big ideas."

"Monk" . . . "Cool it, goose!" . . . "Poor People of Paris" . . . "Adeste Fidelis" . . . Water skiing and Electronics Experimenting . . . Desires to be . . . Electronics Expert . . . Probably will be a zoo keeper.

MARY ALICE HAMMERSTROM

July 4

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Always gay and gracious Mary was Vice President of the Pep Club, and one of our most vivacious cheerleaders. She had leading roles in both "Cinderella" and our Christmas drama. The hours of practice that she puts in at cheerleading and play rehearsals paid off in wonderful performances at both. Mary came to R. C. H. in her Junior year, but it didn't take us long to get to know and love her. She is a wonderful girl and we are sure that she will go far in life.

"Hammy" . . . "Oh good gosh!" . . . "In the Still of the Night" . . . "Silent Night" . . . Running around doing nothing . . . Desires to be writer . . . Probably will be Pulitzer Prize Winner.

the truly educated Christian

AMY JEAN HARASTY

SAINT ANDREW'S

Our sweet and courageous Amy has a marvelous sense of humor. Her sparkling wit enlivened many a class. A virus "bug" took her from our midst in mid-winter, but we know Amy Jean will pull through!

VERONICA ANN HUNTER

February 15

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

The 1960 Snow Queen, Ronnie was also one of our cheerleaders. Tall and long on good humor, she contributed much to our school's spirit. Dreams of a federal position make Ronnie work diligently in business classes. She seems to have her eyes on a certain Marine, what about this, Ronnie?

Ronnie . . . "Hot dog you all I swear" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . talking & laughing . . . Desires to be Airline Stewardess . . . Probably will be flyer of an airplane.

The 1960 Senior Class

MARY KATHERINE LEONARD

August 1

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Perky Kitty, also a cheerleader, was voted "Friendliest" in our class. Sister Cornelius' indispensable secretary, she knows how to get results without noise or dash. Kitty is always a joy to be around with her daredevilish ways and her undying friendliness. Kitty . . . "You're kidding!" . . . "Wild One" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . talking and typing . . . Desires to be Nurse . . . Probably will be secretary of the year.

SANDRA LEIGH MONSOUR

SAINT ANDREW'S

Sandra, voted best dressed in the class, is ever willing to do her part. Her dark hair and flashing eyes are a great asset to her attractive clothes. Sandra was chosen to attend the F.B.L.A. Convention. Always generous with her time, she is a welcome member of any committee. She is both kind and gentle mannered.

Sandy . . . "Oh, Boy!" . . . "Forever" . . .
"Ave Maria" . . . Eating and Sleeping . . .
Desires to be Secretary . . . Probably will be Fashion Editor for the Journal.

Roanoke Catholic High School

BARBARA ANN MURRAY

April 11

SAINT ELIAS

The "shyest" girl in our class really knows when to be silent. Barbara's regal and quiet manner make her seem somewhat aloof. But beneath this, we've found someone truly loyal and friendly. Our Madonna in the Christmas Pageant and candidate for Sweet-heart Queen, she is quiet but sweet as sugar. Precious! . . . "Really" . . . "If I'm that easy to forget" . . . "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy" . . . Shopping . . . Desires to be Nurse . . . Probably will be Den Mother.

JAMES EDWARD O'CONNOR

May 11

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

James, our class treasurer, and delegate to Boys' State, displayed previously hidden athletic ability this year by playing on our winning basketball and golf teams. But never one to neglect the books he was voted "most studious."

James . . . "Nasty" . . . "Pretty Blue Eyes" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . loafing . . . Desires to be successful . . . Probably will be Pro at White Sulphur Springs.

DONNA CECEILA POWERS

December 13

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

This annual is due in part to the perseverance of our Editor-in-Chief, Donna. Winner of many essay and oratorical contests, our valedictorian is an efficient perfectionist. No wonder she was voted "most likely to succeed." Sharp-tongued and witty, Donna is never at a loss for words.

Donna . . . "That and a nickel will buy you a coke" . . . "Dixie" . . . "Ecce Panis Angelorum" . . . Spending Daddy's money . . . Desires to be marriage counselor . . . Probably will be an old maid.

JAMES IRVIN ROUTT, JR.

February 26

SAINT ANDREW'S

Debonair and "best-all-around," Irvin is always able to charm all. Our best buddy and his poems (way out) are indispensable to our class. Irvin's ability in basketball made him a favorite on the court. He will long be remembered as the court jester in "Who Wouldn't be Crazy?"

Irvin . . . "Makes less" . . . "What'd I say" . . . "O Sanctissima" . . . suffering through study hall . . . Desires to be the man to repeal Blue Laws . . . Probably will be bell ringer on Mr. Softee truck.

LUCILLE MAUREEN SHIRLEY

SAINT ANDREW'S

Our typical blonde, Maureen can best be described as lovable. She was selected as "sweetest" by her classmates. What senior can ever forget her pink hair and that sneeze! Maureen's quiet, reserved manner is sometimes shed. Then you should hear that giggle! Best of luck in the future.

Blondie . . . "Oh, my goodness gracious!" . . . "Begin the Beguine" . . . "I Need Thee, Precious Jesus" . . . writing letters and waiting for mail . . . Desires to be loved by all . . . Probably will be loved by all.

ROBERT WHITE SMITH, JR.

October 2

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Our man who thinks for himself, Bob has a scientific bent that will take him far. Dark, handsome, and a marvelous dancer, girls find him suave and sophisticated. Our science fair winner, Bob will sometime be a great scientist.

Bob . . . "If I Had the Wings of an Angel" . . . dancing . . . Desires to be Einstein II . . . Probably will be short order cook.

ANDREA KARLA STEVENS

June 14

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

Our Prom Queen, Andrea was voted "Most Creative" in the class. A second year cheerleader, her flighty ways and flirtatious manner are an asset in capturing the opposite sex. Andrea's school spirit and interest in activities made her a capable member of any organization. A talented artist, Andy's posters will be missed around R.C.H.

Andy . . . "You're Kidding" . . . "Lavender Blue" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Keeping Joyce out of trouble . . . Desires to be Commercial Artist . . . Probably will be a champion swimmer.

DRUCILLA ANNA STEVENS

March 27

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

Dru is evidence of the statement "Quality not Quantity." Our class Vice President is neat, practical, and dependable—traits which make for a good nurse. But Dru also knows how to have a good time—she's going to U. Va., isn't she? Dru is a hard worker and will do her best for all she believes.

Dru . . . "Don't sweat the small stuff" . . . "Summer Place" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Sleeping . . . Wants to be a nurse . . . Probably will be president of Eli Banana.

ELLEN PAGE STULTZ

April 11

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Everything Ellen does is characterized by her easy-going manner and witty remarks. Voted the senior with the "Most Personality," Ellen knows how to enjoy life to the fullest. Her jokes and crazy antics made school a lot of fun. An expert bridge player, she seems to live Va. Tech very much . . . wonder why? Coonie . . . "Oh Dear!" . . . "Carolina in the Morning" . . . "Holy God" . . . Playing bridge . . . Desires to be a bridge expert . . . Probably will be happy.

JANE BENITA TANKERSLEY

SAINT ANDREW'S

The class salutatorian, a National Merit Scholarship finalist, and also the co-editor of the annual, was voted most studious. Jane's honors brought glory to the Senior Class and R.C.H. Jane is not all studies. She sometimes surprises people with her mischievous streak.

Twinkle . . . "Rhapsody in Blue" . . . "Sacrum Convivium" . . . Listening to Kingston Trio albums . . . Desires to be member of Phi Beta Kappa . . . Probably will be dean of Molly Putts School for Girls on the Hudson.

MICHAEL DOUGLAS THOMPSON

August 27

SAINT GERARD'S

Never one to talk when he should be listening, Mike was always ready at any time or place to give forth his witticisms. Although a quiet boy, Michael was always friendly and hard-working and anxious to give his best to any undertaking.

Mike . . . "Balderdash" . . . "The Bells" . . . "Adoremus Te" . . . Basketball and dating . . . Desires to be Electrical Engineer . . . Probably will be captain of the Harlem Globetrotters.

JOSEPH REGINALD TYLER

SAINT ANDREW'S

A necessary ingredient to the success of any school function, our popular classmate is ever-reliable. His multiple interests (mostly feminine) got him elected "most athletic" and "most versatile." Reggie's honors include the Honor Society, the Prince in Cinderella, high basketball scorer in '60, and many more. Reggie, usually seen in the midst of girls, can always be counted on to liven any party.

Reggie . . . "Bite my belly" . . . "Johnny Reb" . . . "Oh Sacramento Most Holy" . . . Girls and basketball . . . Desires to be ambulance driver . . . Probably will be mortician with Goodes Funeral Home.

MARGARET MARIE WILSON

June 21

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

The epitome of good sportsmanship and the right "attitude," Dede was also one of the team of "best dancers." Margaret was one of our delegates to the F.B.L.A. convention. Her easy going and bubbly personality is one of the nicest at R.C.H. May she have all the happiness in the world.

De De . . . "Big Deal!" . . . "Until the Twelfth of Never" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Sewing, tennis, and partying . . . Desires to be airline stewardess . . . Probably will be substitute Air Raid Siren.

JOHN EDWARD WINSTON

December 3

OUR LADY OF NAZARETH

Our popular class President Jack may be considered a diplomat as well as a politician. Captain of the football team, he was voted "best looking". His quality of understanding and his knack for getting others to go his way will prove great assets in any undertaking. We will always remember his crazy antics in class and "The Jack Winston Show" at which he was our master of ceremonies. Butch . . . "Well!" . . . "Greensleeves" . . . "The Lord's Prayer" . . . Desires to be athletic teacher and coach . . . Probably will be President of the United States.

The 1960 Senior Class

JOYCE DIANE WOODSON

SAINT ANDREW'S

Last but not least, the "wittiest" and "most photogenic" girl in the class can best be described as independent and inquisitive. Her subtle humor showed through on many occasions, especially on the trip to Washington. Joyce, a serious girl at heart, is indispensable at any party or gathering. A cheerleader and member of the Pep Club, Joyce's love for R.C.H. was obvious at any football or basketball game.

Fibber . . . "O-o-o-o- You're Kidding" . . . "Twilight Time" . . . "Ave Maria" . . . Driving around . . . Desires to be business education teacher . . . Probably will be Part Owner of Wonderland by Night.

UNDER CLASSMEN

ten ~ ~ ~

Envisioning the new building for R. C. H. are President Linda Fulton, Vice President John Givens, Secretary Martha Susan Bentley, Treasurer Sammy As-said.

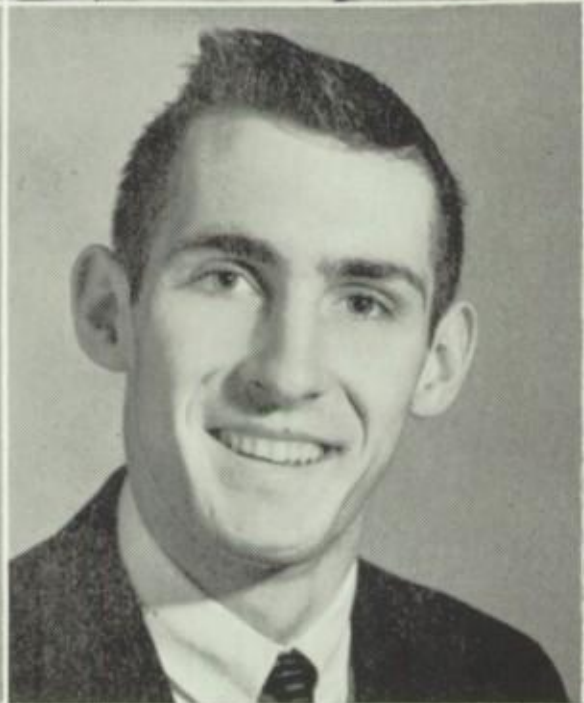

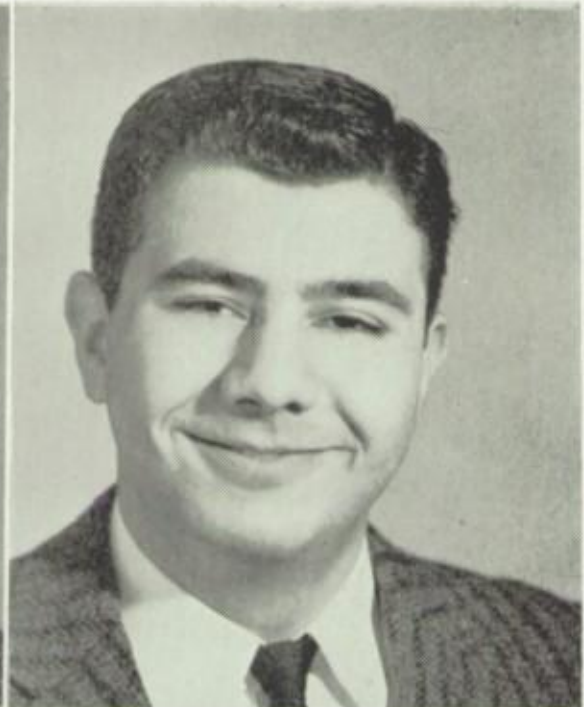

Junior Class Officers

Juniors, self-confident in the knowledge that new and more exciting things await, set their goals for the knowledge that will prepare them for the future. They look across the threshold where the sky stretches eternally and the door never closes. Through this door and under the boundless sky pass shapes—the figures of the present, the historical past, the ghosts of the more distant unknown past and the indefinite shadows of the future—all have passed or will pass through the door.

Finding themselves approaching this same door through which all are compelled to pass as Seniors, the Juniors hope to draw open the curtains on a new dawn, for they have inherited a legacy . . . that in all they do the sky is the limit.

The ideal that the sky is the limit is born in Americanism, cradled in the four freedoms, nourished by the startling discoveries made each day through educational opportunities and crowned by wisdom and vision and the strengthening grace of God.

The Class of 1962 is one of the liveliest classes on the campus of Roanoke Catholic High School.

Very active in Junior Achievement, many Sophomores hold important offices in their companies.

The Sophomore class also boasts football players Garry Clay, Freddie Thomas, Fred Morey, Teddy Woods, Lou Piedmont, Eric Cummings, and Caesar Alba.

All in all, the Sophomores are going places fast, as their Science Fair projects prove.

An Irish Blessing

May the blessed light be on you, light without and light within. May the blessed sunlight shine on you and warm your heart until it glows like a great fire, so that the Stranger may come and warm himself at it, and also a Friend.

And may the light shine out of the two eyes of you like a candle set in two windows of a house, bidding the wanderer to come in from out of the storm.

And may the blessing of the rain be on you—the soft, sweet rain. May it fall upon your spirit so that all the little flowers may spring up and shed their sweetness on the air.

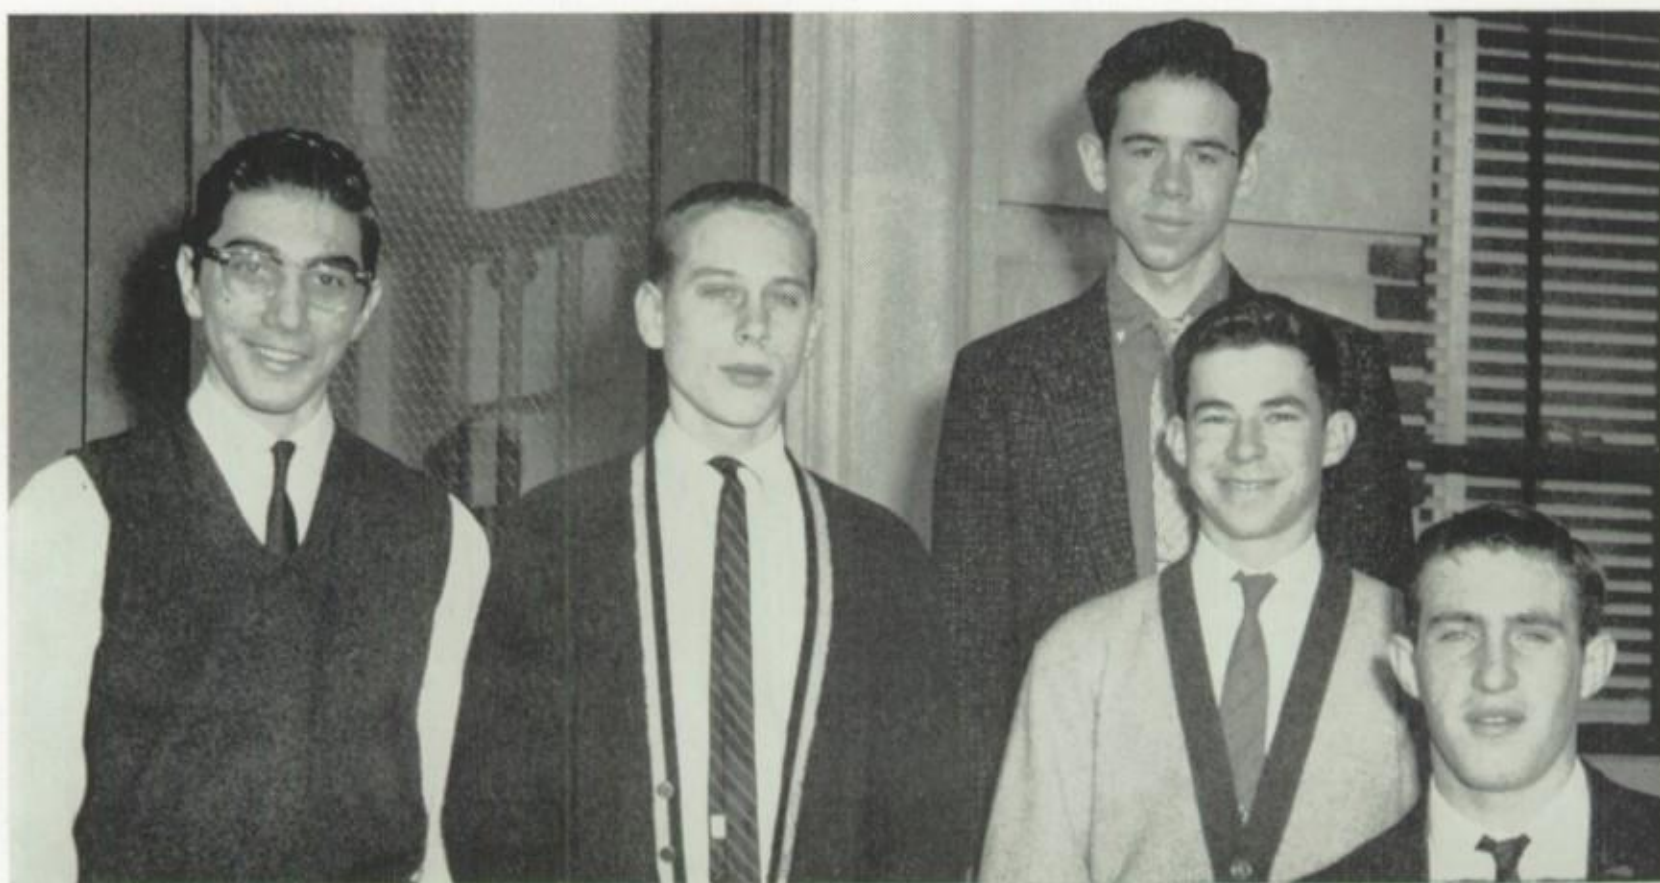

And may the blessing of the great rains be on you; may they beat upon your spirit and wash it fair and clean, and leave there a shining spot where the blue of heaven shines reflected, and sometimes a star.

And may the blessing of the earth be on you—the great and round earth; and may you ever have a kindly greeting for them you pass as you're going along the roads. May the earth be soft under you when you lie upon it, tired at the end of the day, and may it rest easy over you, when at the last, you lie under it; may it rest so lightly over you that your soul may be quickly through it, and up, and off, and on its way to God.

May God always bless you, love you and keep you.

Freshmen Boys Officers

Leaders in R.C.H.'s "Man's World" are Michael Russo, Secretary, Michael McFadden, Treasurer, Petie Woods, Vice President, Jerry Tankersley, President, and Richard Maxey, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Things started rolling early this year in the doubled domain of Freshman A group under Sister Mary Carmelia and Freshman B group under Mr. Aubrey Powell. The biggest name feature was their being dubbed "Man's World" and "Woman's World" and their endeavors to keep each group strictly what its name implied. They shared initiation into high school life with the first influx of Sub-Frosh.

Freshmen Girls Officers

Gathered at Mary's Grotto are Spiritual Treasurer Patsy Stevens, Treasurer Judy Hedrick, Secretary Libby Driscoll, Vice President Alice Svec and President Cathie Kramer. These young ladies added spice and spurring of high order to the "Woman's World" of Grade 9.

Red Cross activities, C. S. M. C. projects and being Library Aides claimed much attention from both groups. Sports of all areas drew applicants who proved varsity material from the beginning. Rosters of football, boys' and girls' basketball, and track carried names of R. C. H. alert Frosh.

Coming Spokesman . . .

C. S. M. C. Orator Douglas Griffin of the active and alert Sub-Frosh won honors at R. C. H. and at Danville in the Diocesan Vocation Oratorical Contest. Doug plans to enroll at the newly-established St. John Vianney Seminary for high school prospects for the Diocesan Priesthood in September.

Sub-Freshmen Officers

Fitting background for Sub-Frosh A officers is the effective vocation poster they kept on their spring bulletin board. Officers (l. to r.) are: Vice President Muriel Hurt, President Frances Ann Surkamer, Secretary Douglas Griffin and Treasurer Kathy Mitchell.

As we enter the classroom of 8 A, we are greeted by Class Representatives—Permanent, Mary Kathleen Mitchell, Temporary, John Wiggins.

The very beautiful Homecoming Princess was Miss Mary Frances Surkamer.

Both the eighth grades worked very hard and have produced some fine school spirit.

Sub-Freshmen Officers

Vocation Posters for Grade 8-B cannot be seen, but these officers worked effectively on their project. Spiking the work of the year were Secretary Thomas Brinkley, Treasurer Richard Hagerty, President Becky Shedwell and Vice President Willie George.

This year we formed a new addition to the high school—the Eighth Grade or Sub-Freshman Class.

The representatives for the Student Council in 8-B are: James Ruscigno and Carol Ann Bush.

The substitute representative is Thomas Craddock.

Princess Mary Anne Morey was seen looking very lovely at Homecoming. During October a class meeting was held; the name of the Sacred Heart Club was decided upon. Members of the Constitutional Committee are:

Chairman Danny Keeney, and Mary Katherine Cassidy, Mary Anne Morey and Michael Bentley.

Music and Meals . . .

Sub-Fresh proved most musically inclined as members of the newly-formed R. C. H. band under the direction of Mr. Bernard Whitman. The Reverend Vincent Campi is moderator of the group.

Delightful and delicious are the meals prepared by these excellent culinary artists in R. C. H. Cafeteria (l. to r.): Mrs. Elsie Waldron, Mrs. Bernie Williams, Mrs. Eloise Wright and Mrs. Nora Ribble. Sister Catharine James, S. C. N., is cafeteria manager.

Co-curricular and Extra-curricular Activities

It has been said to educate the whole student a school must include extra-curricular activities. Hence the various organizations at R. C. H. provide outlets for every form of student interest.

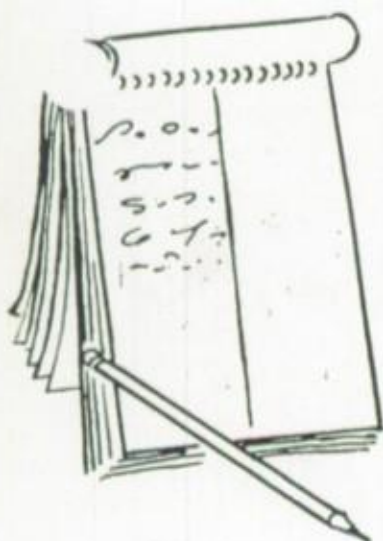

This tie-up of Clubs and social functions with the curriculum "rooted and founded in charity" endeavors to train leaders who can exert a Catholic influence in every phase of adult life. Curriculum aims of concern for fundamentals, a sense of individual responsibility to the common good, confidence and joy of spirit and cooperation with grace through the daily offering are echoed in social activities and sports.

Pilots of Roanoke Catholic Rule Well . . .

The serious business of piloting student activities makes Vice President Andrea Stevens and President Reggie Tyler somewhat pensive. Less serious are Student Council Secretary Theresa Klein, Treasurer Donna Powers, Parliamentarian Ed Sneed, Corresponding Secretary Helen O'Neal and Sergeant-at-Arms Joseph Givens.

The Student Council of R. C. H. jointly comprises the governing officers, homeroom representatives, and heads of student organization in the executive membership. The council strives to collaborate with administration and faculty in working all activities—cultural, social, athletic—into harmony with the chief purposes—religious and academic—of the school's program. Meetings are bi-monthly for general assemblies with the entire student body.

Crusading Celts and Missions . . .

Directing the "Irish" in missionary efforts of R. C. H. are C. S. M. C Financial Treasurer Barbara Olander, Spiritual Treasurer Linda Ripley, Secretary Joseph Cassell, Vice President Irvin Routt, President Denise Florent.

"Love is most important" avers KEY Editor Donna Powers in her winning speech in the eliminations at R. C. H. for the Diocesan Oratorical Contest on the subject of "Vocations."

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is an organization founded in 1918 to pray, study and sacrifice to aid the home and foreign mission work of the Church. The Crusade Unit at R. C. H. provided baskets for the needy at Christmastime, collected coupons to redeem for the S. C. N. missions in India and gave generously to the Bishops' Relief Fund during Lent. Spiritual and corporal deeds of mercy in many ways activated the three-fold crusade program.

Fervently, zealously Father Campi pleads with Crusaders at their February meeting to spend Lent profitably for themselves and fellow members of the Mystical Body and to make generous sacrifices for the Relief Fund collection.

Artful posters executed by John Kowalchuk, junior, attract interested attention from KEY Co-Editor Jane Tankersley, senior, Larry MacMahon, junior, and Mike Eunice, sophomore, during C. S. M. C. Vocation Month.

Catholic Youth Ever Active . . .

Our Lady of Nazareth Catholic Youth Club has members in R. C. H. senior, junior, sophomore classes. These youngsters, under the monitoring of Father Campi, find outlets for interest on many levels.

Fun in campus frolicking is proof of the vitality of Denise Florent and Karen Donckers. The able photographer is likewise their zealous director.

Junior Achievement attracts many R.C.H. co-eds into profitable use of leisure evenings

Variety adds spice to co-ed projects

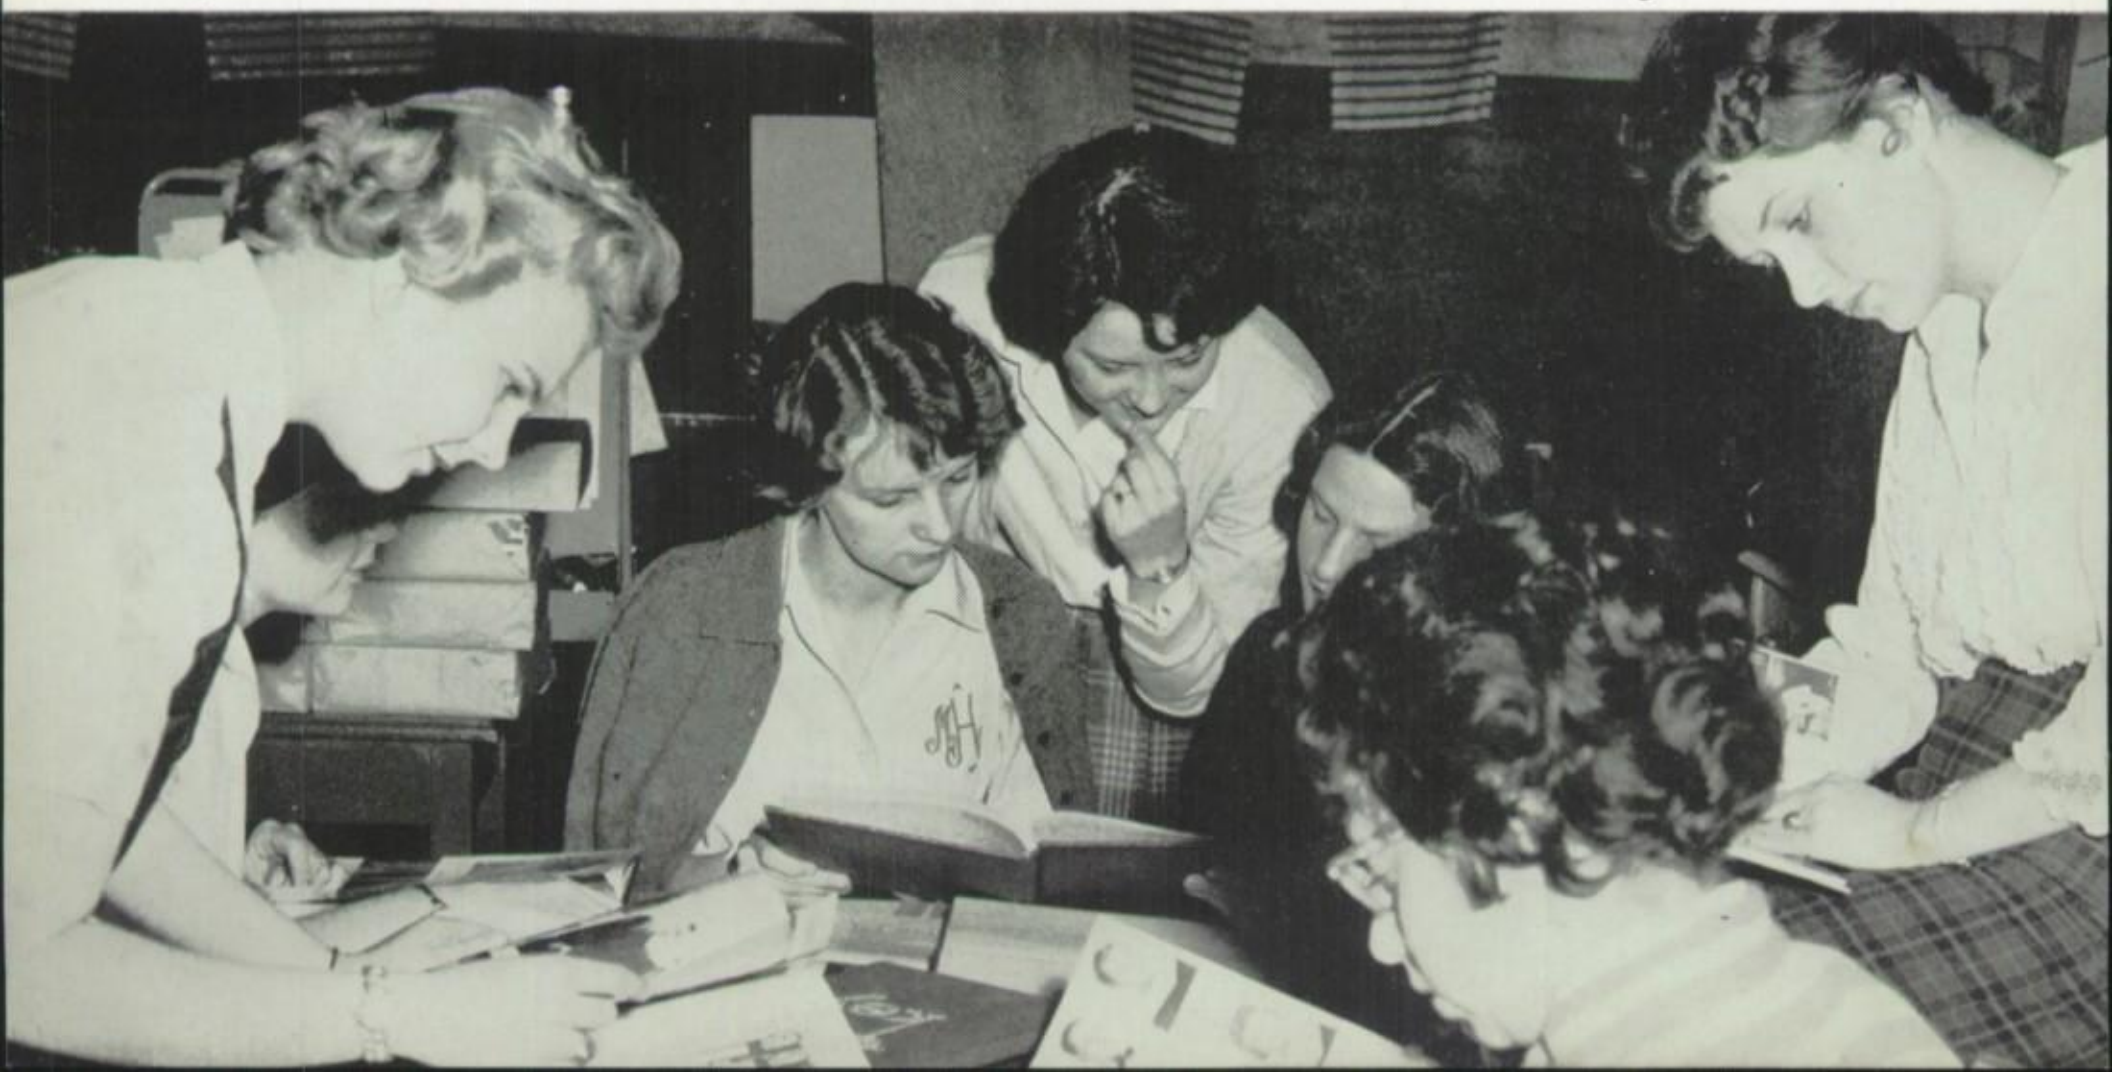

Each year a girl from the Senior class is chosen to represent Roanoke Catholic High on the Teen Council at Miller and Rhoads, one of Roanoke's leading department stores.

She models in the store and participates in all the fashion shows and many of the other activities during the scholastic year.

Paulita Dillon of the class of '60 did a very worthwhile job at Miller and Rhoads and is succeeded by Martha Susan Bentley of the class of '61.

These officers (clockwise): Helena Gillespie, Reporter; Mary Driscoll, Treasurer; Marilyn Finn, President; Paulita Dillon, Secretary; and Helen Callahan, Parliamentarian; assisted Sister Catharine James in the successful management of the Roanoke Catholic High School Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America.

Capable Marilyn Finn adjusts stencil for weekly bulletin. Marilyn's expert work secured her the highest award in the business department from the Underwood Corporation.

The Future Business Leaders of America had a very active year under the capable and effective direction of their moderator, Sister Catharine James.

The Roanoke Catholic High School Chapter was in charge of registration at the State Convention at Hotel Roanoke with Marilyn Finn and Andrea Stevens as delegates.

At the Feet of the Madonna

Our Christmas Pageant, At the Feet of the Madonna, is a moving progression of praise and honor to the Virgin Mary presented in speech by the Seniors and in song by the R. C. H. Glee Club. The Madonna is portrayed by Barbara Murray. Others in the cast include Paulita Dillon, Queen, Mary Hammerstrom, Modern Girl, Kitty Leonard, Jewish Mother, Donna Powers, Martyr, and Ellen Stultz, Pioneer.

We Honor Our Heavenly Queen . . .

On Mother's Day, the student body of R. C. H. and the student body of St. Andrew's Grade School combined in the formation of a living Rosary to honor Our Lady as Queen of Heaven and Earth. Rain dampened only the atmosphere and cut short the line of march. Everyone was on time and eager to salute the Blessed Mother. Jane Tankersley, senior and co-editor of the KEY, crowned the statue of Our Lady in St. Andrew's Church.

Retreat . . .

The Reverend John T. Cilinski

Retreat—away from lessons, from classes, from activities—means a time to analyze, to assess, and to amass spiritual forces. For the three school days preceding Thanksgiving vacation, the R. C. H. student body made a retreat under the inspirational direction of Father John Cilinski. Mass, conferences, devotional exercises, Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, and personal interviews made up the order of the day. Father Cilinski was also director for the Day of Recollection for the Seniors in late May.

At the source of all aid—before the Tabernacle—Jack Winston and Sandra George pray earnestly on the Senior Recollection Day.

. . . and Conquer

Following Christ along the Way of the Cross are Linda Fulton and Larry MacMahon. At other private devotions are Amy Jean Harasty and Alice Svec during R. C. H. Retreat.

The Team's Queen . . .

A weekend of homecoming activities for Roanoke Catholic High began with a campus bonfire and the crowning of the homecoming queen, Helena Gillespie, by the football captain, Jack Winston.

Helena was chosen by the seniors and the football team. Her attendants were Donna Eunice, senior; Martha Susan Bentley, junior; Linda Roberts, sophomore; Susan Johnson, freshman; Mary Frances Surkamer and Mary Ann Morey, sub-freshmen.

The queen and her attendants were honored at the half-time activities of the game and at the dance held after the game.

Although we lost the game it was a wonderful weekend, one that truly showed the school spirit at R. C. H.

*"When your days on earth are over,

A SLIGHT SADNESS tinges the farewell smiles of Donna Eunice and Helena Gillespie as they chant "Now is the hour —."

arrivederci...

After four wonderful years the Senior Class regretfully leaves "the hill," but we leave with many marvelous memories. We are sure not one of us will forget all the great times we had together these past four years.

The 1960 KEY is a monument to perpetuate this school year and, therefore, within these pages TIME STANDS STILL, allowing us the immeasurable satisfaction of pleasant reflection: from the opening of school doors in early September to graduation on June 1, we can relive all these days encompassed in these pages. Yes, almost miraculously TIME STANDS STILL in printer's ink.

We hope you will enjoy this annual as much as we enjoyed giving it to you.
Arrivederci!

REGGIE'S UNWONTED SERIOUSNESS draws a teasing "arrivederci" from Mike Eunice at the end of the long grey line.
